

CDPAC MEETING AGENDA

Thursday, November 4, 1999

Governor's Office of Planning and Research
1400 10th Street (10th & N) Sacramento
(Upstairs conference room)

9:00 - 9:30

Continental Breakfast

9:30 - 9:45

Welcome

Statement of Purpose:

- 1) Build relationships so that the Committee can function as a team
- 2) Review the purpose of the Committee
- 3) Begin development of a work plan for 1999 - 2000

9:45 - 10:30

A Look to the Future - Karen Hill Scott

Dr. Karen Hill-Scott is a nationally recognized expert in child care and development, whose career has embodied a blend of university teaching, consulting, public policy analysis and service to families. She has over 30 years of experience in the child development profession, with unusual breadth and depth of projects. Her research has been mainly directed at shaping public policy in the area of child care, welfare reform and work-family supports.

10:30 - 11:00

Members respond to future scenario

11:00 - 11:45

What does CDPAC need to do to ensure quality services for children & families in 2000? 2005? 2010?

11:45 - 12:45

Lunch & Get to Know You Exercise

12:45 - 2:00

How will CDPAC accomplish its goals?

- member roles & sub committees
- staff roles

2:00 - 2:30

Recap and assignments

2:30 - 3:00

Committee Procedures

3:00

Adjournment